Community Radio Station VKW – A Blast from the Past

The local community radio station – the then VKW Voice of the Cocos Keeling Islands presented itself as the media which can most easily reach the local community members. The community radio ran as a not-for profit radio service it responded with community participation, listens to the needs of the community, and serves and contributes towards the community's development in a progressive manner.

The main aim of the community radio was that it contributed towards the socio-economic and cultural development of the community, by promoting the culture of the island and the empowerment of the community. Remembering when the radio shows came from all aspect of the demographic spectrum.

A real community radio should be in the community, should serve the community, and should be of the community.

The advent of a fast-developing communication world we live in now the community radio can offer communities an economic and fundamental method for protecting their language and their cultural heritage. The thought of accommodating people's ideas and satisfy their spiritual and psychological well-being much better than any other form of broadcasting. Community radio preserve's cultural identity. We fail to community effectively now.

In 1985 I started my own little radio show segment every Tuesday afternoons for a couple of years. I was in year 7 & 8 then. Like most of my other school friends in the primary and high school it was the norm and cool. It was more of a music session playing the composition that we loved then and taking music requests from the locals over the phone.

Everyone was listening, everyone loved it, everyone participated, and it was a meaningful experience. Conversational shows started to take affect because volunteers listened to other radio shows and mirrored the formula and this bang of progressive radio occurred. It was positive, and it made listening to 'nonsense' chatter entertaining and more reaching.

My experience on having a radio show introduced me to a new skill which I never would have – self-esteem through two-way communication. Encouraging locals to get involved in our local radio station – absolutely! 6CKI has so many opportunities and an outlet for our wellbeing and personal care being so isolated and giving it a dose of realism. It allows us retelling stories past and present, bad and good experiences in life or other people's lives. I would like to introduce our elders to the rest of the community and share their knowledge through the airwaves and into the hearts of the younger generations.

The possibilities are endless and very rewarding. I have a thirst for the good old times and revival of things we miss being on Cocos. So amateur talk back radio hopes to be reignited soon. Our Community Radio puts our community first.

In the Beginning....

Community gardening is defined by its shared nature; gardeners work collectively to manage a garden for a shared benefit.

Communal gardening activities, and recognition have been around for ages and has a long history. In recent years that interest has developed in assessing the potential to address many of the threats to health and wellbeing faced by communities. Our new community garden will address all these and more. Our vision in providing opportunities for physical activity, improved nutrition and reduced stress and collective participation through skills sharing ae our main key goals.

The new community garden will sprawl within the confines of the current chicken and garden plots. We have cleared several plots and have started planting drinking coconut palms. Our aims are to populate the aging fruit trees which adoms the Oceania House Garden and provide a sensory experience garden.

The benefits of community gardening hopes to extend beyond the participants themselves.

Pulu Keeling National Park

Blue tailed skink update

Citizen science project on the Cocos Islands

Parks Australia have partnered with Cocos Islands Adventure Tours to help with the monitoring of the recently translocated Christmas Island blue tailed skink. The skinks were translocated from captivity on Christmas Island and Taronga Zoo, Sydney, to two small islands in the Cocos group over two years ago as a species recovery action. Due to a combination of invasive predators, the endemic blue tailed skink is presumed extinct in the wild on Christmas island.

Cocos Islands Adventure Tours take visitors island hopping by motorised canoe and historically would stop and have brunch or a sunset drink on several of the small islands. Now visitors are offered the opportunity to join the tour leaders to count the number of blue tailed skinks they see at 12 monitoring points across the two “skink” islands. The weekly counts are forwarded directly to Parks Australia to help monitor the skink populations.

Cocos Islands Adventure Tours also received a Cocos Australia Day Award this year from the local Cocos Shire in conjunction with Parks Australia, in recognition of their contribution to the Blue Tail Skink Recovery Program.

Remember if visiting Pulu Blan and Blan Madar, please check your boat and cargo. Remove any giant centipedes, wasps, cats and rats that will compete with, or eat the skinks. Thank you.

Petition by the People of the Cocos (Keeling) Islands to the Administrator, Indian Ocean Territories and Department of Infrastructure.

Thankyou to all those who supported this petition, please find below our response letter which we hope may bring some action and attention to this much talked about issue which has a significant impact on our community as a whole. At the time of our petition unfortunately the government was in caretaker mode after the recent election, bringing a change in leadership. Hoping that now with a new minister we may see some further investigations, at the very least, community consultation as promised.

Dear Ms Bertram

Cocos (Keeling) Islands freight services

Thank you again for the petition representing your communities concerns in relation to the freight challenges being experienced on Cocos (Keeling) Islands.

The Department and its provider Virgin Australia recognise that reliable air services for high-value, time-critical freight are essential for those who live and work in the Indian Ocean Territories.

As per my undertaking to you last week, I would like to provide the community with factual information that assists understanding of the situation and our decision-making process, and outline what is being done to address current challenges and what is planned for the longer term.

Air and sea freight services to the remote Indian Ocean Territories are complex. Air freighters currently carry approximately 12 tonnes per flight with a maximum of only six tonnes to the Cocos (Keeling) Islands due to the additional fuel requirements. Air freight services are susceptible to disruption due to weather conditions both at take-off and landing, and excessive head winds create a need for more fuel to be carried. Freight backlogs were experienced throughout 2021 and early this year due to increased demand, delays to shipping services, and limited fuel availability, which reduced capacity to provide additional air freighters.

An additional 41 flights, including 20 freighters, were provided between 27 September 2020 and 4 March 2022 to ensure the continued movement of passengers and freight to the IOT. While additional flights can provide a short term solution, this option is not always logistically available. Additional flights operating with excess capacity on an ongoing basis may also lead to price increases and make air-freight less affordable for residents in the longer term.

Virgin Australia, and its sub-contractors Toll and Freightshop, are implementing a range of actions to address the current challenges and reduce backlogs. Virgin Australia has offered to attend the Cocos (Keeling) Islands and Christmas Island in August 2022 to meet with the community, hear your concerns and invite community input to solutions. Virgin Australia is presently identifying suitable dates for these engagements, and will ensure timely communications go out to the communities in advance of their visit.

Additional flights scheduled in May and June are expected to clear all recently off-loaded freight to the Cocos (Keeling) Islands. Virgin Australia will continue to monitor the situation to determine whether additional services are required in June and/or July.

In late April, Toll and Freightshop commenced the trial of a new system requiring the pre-booking of perishable goods, to improve capacity to carry other categories of freight. Freight data is being closely analysed to better estimate the volumes of perishable goods that can be reasonably expected for each freighter. This data is being used to inform the trial and refine the new system through June 2022.

To increase additional freight capacity to the Cocos (Keeling) Islands, Virgin Australia is investigating the reinstatement of arrangements using Jakarta as a contingency airport for weather disrupted freight flights, as less fuel is required to meet flight safety requirements. A timeframe for this option is yet to be determined and will be subject to the ongoing COVID situation.

We will continue to work with the community and our industry partners to understand the underlying reasons that freight services are periodically disrupted, and what we can do to minimise disruptions. We know that fuel and transport costs have increased, and that there are shifts in consumer patterns, with increasing demand on air services. We also know that global shipping is experiencing unprecedented disruption and COVID is still having impacts on air and maritime freight movements. To this end, the Department will continue to work with Virgin Australia and seek industry expert advice to analyse freight flows and market conditions to inform future options for the Australian Government’s consideration.

Maintaining reliable freight services for remote island communities is an ongoing challenge, however we are optimistic that the current actions will reduce backlogs, and we anticipate the conditions that led to the backlogs will ease in the coming months.

We have listened to the community on this issue, and have heard what the impacts are on the social, commercial and everyday lives of IOT residents. We look forward to working with the community to ensure that all parties are doing what they can to deliver freight services that meet the needs of the community.

Sincerely,

Dr Rachel Bacon

Cocos (Keeling) Islands Marine Park - update and visit

The Marine Parks team will be on Cocos from the 23rd to the 30th of August to provide an update and seek feedback on a number matters relating to the marine park.

A Management Plan for Cocos (Keeling) Islands Marine Park

We will soon start preparing a management plan for the Cocos (Keeling) Islands Marine Park. The plan will establish the detailed management arrangements for these marine parks for 10 years. We are looking to establish an advisory committee to help with the development of the management plan. Part of our visit will involve discussing the terms of reference for this advisory committee and its membership.

Cocos Lagoon Conservation Action Plan

We have recently engaged Sea Country Solutions to develop a Cocos lagoon Conservation action plan. This plan will outline management, monitoring, research and community engagement priorities for Cocos (Keeling) Islands Southern Atoll seagrass and coral reef ecosystems. The priorities of this conservation action plan will guide marine park management decisions and inform the Cocos (Keeling) Islands Marine Park management plan.

Sea Country Solutions and the marine park team will host two ‘drop in’ sessions. Please stop by and let us know what you think needs to be done to manage the special marine environment of the southern atoll for future generations:

- Thursday, 25 Aug from 2.00pm-4:00pm at the Parks office on Home Island
- Monday, 29 Aug from 2.00pm-4.00pm outside the CRC on West Island

Other marine park questions/comments

We are always keen to talk with community members about the marine park and any questions/comments you have. You can:

- Come to one of the drop in sessions or just flag us down when you see us on island: we’ll be around on Home Island for most of Wed 24th, Fri 26th and Sat 27th Aug; and West Island on Thurs 25th, Mon 29th and Tues 30th.
- Send us an email if you would like to schedule a meeting to discuss something specific
- Send us an email or give us a call with your questions/comments any time

Working with Children Checks III

These are short articles about legal issues that may interest you. They are not legal advice. You should always get individual legal advice for your situation.

This is the third article about Working With Children Checks (WWCC). WWCCs are checks performed on people who work with children, designed to protect children. You should read the first two articles before reading this article.

If I am given a WWCC card how long is it in force for?

If you are given a WWCC card it is in force for 3 years unless it is cancelled. A copy will be given by the CEO to your employer.

You must renew your card when it is close to expiry to continue to do child-related work.

The Department of Communities recommends that you apply for a renewal at least 1 month before your card is due to expire. It cannot accept applications for renewal more than 3 months before your card is due to expire.

You cannot renew your card if you have stopped doing child-related work. You must make a fresh application when you are about to start child-related work again.

What happens if the CEO must give me a negative notice or intends to give me a negative notice?

If the CEO must give you a negative notice or intends to give you a negative notice the CEO must invite you to make submissions about your criminal record and your suitability to be issued with a WWCC card.

A negative notice immediately cancels a WWCC card if you currently hold one. Your card must be returned to the Department.

If you are given a negative notice it is an offence to do child-related work. The maximum penalty is a fine of $60,000 and 5 years imprisonment.

Your negative notice remains in place until it is cancelled. A copy will be given by the CEO to your employer.

What is an interim negative notice?

If the CEO invites you to make submissions because they must give you a negative notice or because they intend to give you a negative notice the CEO can give you an interim negative notice at the same time. You cannot do child-related work while the interim negative notice is in place.

An interim negative notice immediately cancels a WWCC card if you currently hold one. Your card must be returned to the Department.

If you are given an interim negative notice it is an offence to do child-related work. The maximum penalty is a fine of $60,000 and 5 years imprisonment.

The interim negative notice is in place until the CEO makes a decision about your application and either gives you a WWCC card or gives you a negative notice.

You cannot withdraw your application for a WWCC if you are given an interim negative notice.

Can I have a negative notice decision reviewed?

Yes. You can apply to the State Administrative Tribunal (SAT) to have the decision reviewed. You must apply within 28 days of the date on the negative notice letter.

The negative notice letter will set out the reasons for the decision.

The matter will be heard completely afresh by the SAT. If the SAT overturns the decision of the CEO, you will be given a WWCC card.

If the SAT decides that you should be given a negative notice, you will not be given a WWCC card. Your negative notice will remain in place unless:

- You successfully appeal on a question of law to the Supreme Court, or
- Your negative notice is cancelled under working with children law.

Can I apply to have a negative notice cancelled by the CEO?

You can apply to have a negative notice cancelled by the CEO. The general rule is that you cannot apply to have it cancelled until 3 years after the negative notice was issued, or 3 years since your last application to have the negative notice cancelled.

There are exceptions to this 3-year rule, and if an exception applies, you may apply earlier to have the negative notice cancelled. One example of an exception is if the negative notice was given when you had been charged with a Class 1 or Class 2 offence and then the court disposes of the Class 1 or the Class 2 offence in a way that does not result in a conviction against you (eg you are acquitted). As soon as this happens you may apply to have your negative notice cancelled.

Another example is if the negative notice was given when you had a conviction for any offence and the conviction is quashed or set aside on appeal – as soon as this happens you may apply to have your negative notice cancelled. There are other situations where you do not have to wait 3 years to apply to have your negative notice cancelled.

You should get legal advice if you want to make an application to have your negative notice cancelled.

“Serbis LAWA's IOTs dibiayai sepenuhnya oleh Kerajaan Australia”

Working with Children Checks III

Ini adalah artikel pendek mengenai perkara undang-undang yang mungkin menarik untuk anda. Ini bukan nasihat undang-undang. Anda mesti selalu mendapatkan nasihat undang-undang sendiri untuk keadaan anda.

Ini adalah artikel ketiga tentang Working With Children Checks (WWCC). WWCCs adalah cek yang dilakukan pada orang-orang yang bekerja dengan anak-anak, dirancang untuk melindungi anak-anak. Anda harus membaca artikel yang pertama dan kedua sebelum membaca artikel ini.

Jika saya dikasi kad untuk bekerja dengan anak-anak berapa lama ia berkuat kuasa?

Jika anda dikasi kad untuk bekerja dengan anak-anak ia berkuatkuasa selama 3 tahun kecuali dibatalkan. Kopinya akan dikasi oleh CEOnya kepada pekerja anda.

Anda harus barukan kad anda apabila dekat expiry untuk terus melakukan pekerjaan yang berkaitan dengan anak-anak.

Department of Communities menasihatkan anda memohon pembaruan sekurang-kurangnya 1 bulan sebelum kad anda mati. Ia tidak boleh menerima permohonan untuk pembaruan lebih dari 3 bulan sebelum kad anda mati.

Anda tidak boleh barukan kad anda jika anda berhenti melakukan kerja yang berkaitan dengan anak-anak. Anda harus buat permohonan baru apabila anda memulakan kerja yang berkaitan dengan anak-anak lagi.

Apa yang berlaku jika CEO harus kasi saya notis negatif atau berniat untuk kasi saya notis negatif?

Jika CEO harus kasi anda notis negatif atau berniat untuk kasi anda notis negatif CEO harus jumpu anda untuk membuat penyerahan tentang rekod kriminal dan kesesuaian anda untuk dikasi kad untuk bekerja dengan anak-anak.

Jika anda ada kad untuk bekerja dengan anak-anak notis negatif akan segera membatalkan kad itu. Kad anda harus dikembalikan kepada Department.

Jika anda dikasi notis negatif adalah menjadi satu kesalahan untuk membuat kerjaan yang berkaitan dengan anak-anak. Hukuman paling besar adalah denda sebanyak $60,000 dan dikurung 5 tahun.

Notis negatif anda tetap kekal sampai dibatalkan. Kopinya akan dikasi oleh CEOnya kepada pekerja anda.

Apakah notis negatif sementara?

Jika CEO menjemput anda untuk membuat penyerahan karena mereka harus kasi anda notis negatif atau karena mereka berniat untuk kasi anda notis negatif CEO nya boleh kasi anda notis negatif sementara di masa yang sama. Anda tidak boleh melakukan kerjaan yang berkaitan dengan anak-anak semasa ada notis negatif sementara.

Notis negatif sementara segera membatalkan kad untuk bekerja dengan anak-anak jika anda memegangnya pada masa ini. Kad anda harus di kembalikan kepada Department.

Jika anda dikasi notis negatif sementara adalah satu kesalahan untuk membuat kerjaan yang berkaitan dengan anak-anak. Hukuman paling besar adalah denda sebanyak $60,000 dan dikurung 5 tahun.

Notis negatif sementara berlaku sehingga CEOnya membuat keputusan tentang permohonan anda dan sama ada kasi anda kad untuk kerja dengan anak-anak atau kasi anda notis negatif.

Anda tidak boleh tarik balek permohonan anda untuk WWCC jika anda dikasi notis negatif sementara.

Bolehkah saya meminta keputusan notis negatif saya di pertimbangkan semula?

Ya. Anda boleh memohon kepada State Administrative Tribunal (SAT) supaya keputusan di pertimbangkan semula. Anda harus memohon dalam tempoh 28 hari dari hari bulan di surat notis negatif.

Surat notis negatif akan menjelaskan alasan keputusan tersebut.

Perkara ini akan didengar sepenuhnya oleh SAT. Jika SAT membatalkan keputusan CEO, anda akan dikasi kad untuk bekerja dengan anak-anak.

Jika SAT memutuskan bahawa anda perlu dikasi notis negatif, anda tidak akan dikasi kad untuk bekerja dengan anak-anak. Notis negatif anda akan tetap kecuali:

- Anda berhasil merayu atas persoalan undang-undang kepada Supreme Court, atau
- Notis negatif anda dibatalkan di bawah undang-undang bekerja dengan anak-anak.

Bolehkah saya memohon supaya notis negatif saya dibatalkan oleh CEO?

Anda boleh memohon supaya notis negatif anda dibatalkan oleh CEO. Peraturannya ialah anda tidak boleh memohon untuk membatalkannya sehingga 3 tahun selepas notis negatif dikeluarkan, atau 3 tahun sejak permohonan terakhir anda untuk membatalkan notis negatif.

Ada pengecualian untuk aturan 3 tahun, dan jika pengecualian berlaku, anda boleh memohon lebih awal untuk membatalkan notis negatif. Satu contoh pengecualian ialah jika notis negatif dikasi apabila anda telah di tuduh dengan kesalahan Kelas 1 atau kesalahan Kelas 2 dan kemudian mahkamah memutuskan kesalahan Kelas 1 atau kesalahan Kelas 2 dengan cara yang tidak mengakibatkan hukuman terhadap anda (misalnya anda dibebaskan). Setelah ini berlaku anda boleh memohon untuk membatalkan notis negatif anda.

Contoh lain ialah jika notis negatif dikasi apabila anda dihukum atas kesalahan apa pun dan hukuman nya dibatalkan atau disampingkan semasa rayuan – setelah ini berlaku anda boleh memohon untuk membatalkan notis negatif anda. Terdapat keadaan lain dimana anda tidak perlu 3 tahun untuk memohon supaya notis negatif anda dibatalkan.

Anda harus mendapatkan nasihat undang-undang jika anda ingin membuat permohonan untuk membatalkan notis negatif anda.

Poem

RISE

I will rise
 After every fall.
 I will rise
 And stand tall.
 I will rise
 Over the wall.
 I will rise above all.
 Like the sun,
 Which never dies.
 Though sets every night,
 Every day it does rise.
 Like the ocean
 Whose tides
 Many times they are down,
 But invariably they rise.
 Like the trees,
 From seeds they arise,
 And heights great
 They rise and rise.
 After falling once,
 Twice and thrice,
 Again and again
 I will rise and rise.
 I will rise
 After every fall.
 After every fall.
 I will rise.

Kids Craft

Butterfly Paper snowflake

What you need:

- White paper
- Scissors
- Pencil

Step 1: Begin with a white paper square or trim a regular piece of A4 paper into an 8 1/2 " by 8 1/2" square. Fold the square in half, and then in half again so that you have a smaller square made up of four layers.

Step 2: Use a pencil to sketch out the outline of a simple butterfly or moth shape, or just go for it with a pair of scissors. It can help to do a quick image search on Pinterest for illustrated images of moths and butterflies to reference. There are tons of different shapes you can cut.

Step 3: Fold the butterfly's wing on a diagonal. This doesn't need to be exact, and it likely won't even be possible for you to make it exactly even after cutting your butterfly outline, so don't worry about that too much.

Step 4: Like you would with a normal paper snowflake, cut simple designs into the fold you just made.

Step 5: When you're happy with the design, unfold the butterfly and flatten under a pile of heavy books.

Cocos Resident Profile

Name: Nurlelah Arkrie

Kampung Name (If you have one): Mak Fawwaz

Place of Birth: Subiaco, Perth

Besides Cocos, where have you resided or visited?

I have visited Christmas Island several times and lived in Perth for 3 years.

What were you doing before?

I completed year 11&12 at Canning Vale College, then followed by a Diploma of Hospitality Management (Patisserie Stream.) I had visioned myself becoming a Pastry Chef and managing a profitable patisserie or, at least a catering company- but GOD had other beautiful plans written for me.

What are you doing now?

I work at the school as a full-time Special Needs Education Assistant.

What is your biggest accomplishment?

Well, nothing major apart from “baking the world a better place.”

What are the top 5 things you love about living on Cocos?

What’s not the love about our Mother Land?

World-renowned destination.

Palm- fringed and silky sands.

The unique Cocos Malay culture.

Oh! And of course- the amazing food! Can’t forget that!

What is your favourite Malay dish?

Anything “Buntal” (Puffer Fish)

What are the things that you would like to do on Cocos that you haven’t had the chance to?

Would love to join the Cocos Dive team and visit their regular dive sites

Do you have a Cocos moment/mishap/experience to share?

Yes! A very “Cocos” like experience! A recent one too actually. I got a mullet bone stuck in my throat for a good 1 hour. After 4 attempts, the Dr finally managed to get it out- with super large forceps- OUCH! Very next day, I realised I had a subconjunctival haemorrhage which had caused a blood vessel to break in my eye! No more fish for me!

List some of the things you are passionate about?

Being a wife and mother.

Baking

Finding the “balance” to enjoy my life

If you could change Cocos, what would you do first?

Even though prices are increasing steadily year after year after year, I wouldn’t change Cocos for the world. It is what it is!
